Collection Hits Its 2020 TBR Article Index 3.6TB of torrent-trackage-as-awesome-as-it-should-be I'm kind of torn on the purpose of this video. On the one hand, it is an awesomely large number of tracks, on the other, Gizz doesn't necessarily get to speak in it (on the technical side) as track selection is done strictly by mine and several other sites. Us, on the other hand, thought some things were awesome. We didn't agree on everything, we disagreed on a lot, and almost never in a bad way. His house got so crowded over the years with electronics, he needed to get a bigger place. My house grew ever-more empty and lonely. Everybody keeps saying I should combine the two. I've had that thought for a long while, but as I've gotten older, I
