transfer case With the re-designed computer and new gears (same size as the old one), the tow ratings were up to the new computer. Without the company's towing capacity, I wouldn't buy the truck. I did it anyway. The computer didn't like the new gears, so it told the new computer that I was using the old gears. The tow ratings weren't the problem. It was the fact that the code indicated the new gears. In the first tow towing with the new computer and new gears, the code indicated that the new gears were not cooperating and shut off the transmission. The truck would never tow again.
After the first tow, the code relented and would not fault the new gears again. The tow ratings were still the same. The
